

FREE

What's on at

Hull Museums

May

Tuesday 28 May

Ship of the Future
1pm – 3pm

Maritime Museum

Create your own ship of the future. Can you make it move by making a simple engine powered by vinegar and baking powder?

Free, drop-in.

Suitable for: families

Wednesday 29 May

Cars of the Future
1pm – 3pm

Streetlife Museum

Imagine, design and craft your own vehicle of the future. Be inspired by the collection of cars in Streetlife Museum to look into the future of travel.

Free, drop-in.

Suitable for: families

Thursday 30 May

Please Touch: Prehistory
1pm – 3pm

Hull & East Riding
Museum

Come and handle objects from prehistory. Discover what life was like for people living in East Yorkshire in the past and what they left behind.

Free, drop-in.

Suitable for: all visitors

Friday 31 May

Time Travellers: Georgian Style!
1pm – 3pm

Wilberforce House Museum

Come and build your very own time machine inspired by our Georgian clock collection.

Free, drop-in.

Suitable for: families

Working in partnership

Follow us on

Hull Museums

@Hull_Museums

@Hull_Museums