

How to write your own adventure story

Now it's your turn to try some creative writing.

Use these steps to help you create your own exciting adventure story.

STEP 1

The Beginning: Describe your lead character.
Likes – Dislikes – What makes this animal special?

The lead character in my story is called the Penguin Professor. He loves reading books, drinking hot chocolate, and wearing his favourite red scarf wherever he goes!

STEP 2

The Beginning: Describe your opening setting.
Where does your character live?

My story takes place in Igloo City. This is an incredibly cold place filled with thousands of ice homes for a great many penguins. A giant ice palace towers above all the other igloos in the city.

STEP 3

The Middle: What problem does your character face?

Does something happen to your character?
What changes in their world?

Some of the igloos in the city begin to melt because of rising temperatures in the Night Zoo. The Penguin Professor volunteers to help solve this disastrous problem!

STEP 4

The Middle: Does your character go on an adventure to solve their problem?

Where does your character go? What happens to them along the way?

The Penguin Professor begins his journey to the Fire Desert, as he believes the heat from the desert may be the cause of the problem. On his way, he meets Night Zookeeper Will and explains all about what's happening in Igloo City.

STEP 5

The End: How will your story end? Will it have a happy, sad, or cliffhanger ending?

How has the world changed?
What did your animal learn?

The Night Zookeeper and Penguin Professor discover a secret in the Fire Desert that helps them to prevent rising temperatures in Igloo City. All the penguins thank the heroes! Before the story ends, a shooting star flies across the sky and strikes the Penguin Professor's igloo
